Special Note

1. The Board of Directors of the Company has proposed a cash dividend of RMB3.40 (tax inclusive) per 10 shares to all shareholders based on the total share capital registered on the dividend distribution record date. The proposal is subject to consideration and approval at the annual general meeting of the Company.

2. Unless otherwise specified, the following terms have the same meanings as those defined in "Definitions" (pages 3 to 5) in this annual report.

This annual report contains forward-looking statements, including statements regarding our future results of operations and financial position, business strategy and plans and objectives for future operations. These statements are based on our management's current expectations and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. Although we believe that the expectations reflected in these forward-looking statements are reasonable, we cannot assure you that these expectations will prove to be correct. Actual results could differ materially from those contemplated by these forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include those discussed in "Risk Factors" (pages 36 to 45) in this annual report. You should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which apply only as of the date of this annual report. All forward-looking statements in this annual report are qualified by reference to this cautionary statement.
